Education Sunday

Next Sunday the 2nd collection will be for the Scottish Catholic Education Service

The Catholic Church in Scotland encourages schools, parishes and other agencies to work closely together in order to celebrate the successes of Catholic education particularly during one week each year. The purpose of Catholic Education Week is to highlight the significance of education, not only for young people but for society as a whole. Students, parents, teachers and others are asked to reflect on their own roles in the education process – at home, in school, in the local parish and in other educational settings.

SCES provides support materials linked to each year's chosen theme to assist schools and parishes in their own plans to draw attention to the added value which Catholic schools bring across Scotland. Promotional events, liturgical celebrations, particular classroom lessons and school activities are encouraged in schools and parishes throughout this week. The materials provided can be used at other times of the year.

For Catholic Education Week 2018, resources are provided to support schools and parishes to address the theme: "Serving The Common Good". Go to:

Liturgical Diary

Mon 11 Feb: Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes commemorates the eighteen appearances of Our Blessed Lady to St. Bernadette Soubirous in 1858 in her home village in the south of France. Our Lady called for pilgrims to come to pray and do penance. Pope John Paul II made this a Day of Prayer throughout the Church for all who are sick, connecting with the prominent place given to sick people in Lourdes.

Thurs 14 Feb: Feast of St Cyril (826-869) and St Methodius (815-885) who were brothers, born at Thessalonica, who spread the Faith in Moravia. They translated liturgical texts into Slavonic using the Cyrillic alphabet, which they devised. Cyril died, aged 43, on a visit to Rome. Methodius became a bishop and worked in Pannonia and the present-day Czech Republic, where he is buried at the great shrine of Velehrad. They were named Patrons of Europe by St. John Paul II in 1980.

Death Anniversaries (February)

Entrance Antiphon

Ps 94: 6-7

O come, let us worship God
and bow low before the God who made us, for he is the Lord our God.

First reading

Isaiah 6:1-2,3-8

In the year of King Uzziah's death I saw the Lord of Hosts seated on a high throne; his train filled the sanctuary; above him stood seraphs, each one with six wings.

And they cried out to one another in this way,

*'Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of Hosts.
His glory fills the whole earth.'*

The foundations of the threshold shook with the voice of the one who cried out, and the Temple was filled with smoke. I said:

*'What a wretched state I am in! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips
and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have looked at the King, the Lord of Hosts.'*

Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding in his hand a live coal which he had taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. With this he touched my mouth and said:

*'See now, this has touched your lips,
your sin is taken away,
your iniquity is purged.'*

Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying:

'Whom shall I send? Who will be our messenger?'

I answered, 'Here I am, send me.'

The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Psalms 137(138):1-5,7-8

Response: *Before the angels I will bless you,
O Lord.*

I thank you, Lord, with all my heart:
you have heard the words of my mouth.
In the presence of the angels I will bless you.

I will adore before your holy temple.

R: Before the angels I will bless you, O Lord.

I thank you for your faithfulness and love,
which excel all we ever knew of you.
On the day I called, you answered;
you increased the strength of my soul.

R: Before the angels I will bless you, O Lord.

All earth's kings shall thank you when they hear the words of your mouth.
They shall sing of the Lord's ways:
'How great is the glory of the Lord!'

R: Before the angels I will bless you, O Lord.

You stretch out your hand and save me,
your hand will do all things for me.
Your love, O Lord, is eternal, discard not the work of your hands.

R: Before the angels I will bless you, O Lord.

Second reading

1 Corinthians 15:1-11

Brothers, I want to remind you of the gospel
I preached to you, the gospel that you received and in which you are firmly established; because the gospel will save you only if you keep believing exactly what I preached to you – believing anything else will not lead to anything.

Well then, in the first place, I taught you what I had been taught myself, namely that Christ died for our sins, in accordance with the scriptures; that he was buried; and that he was raised to life on the third day, in accordance with the scriptures; that he appeared first to Cephas and secondly to the Twelve. Next he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers at the same time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died; then he appeared to James, and then to all the apostles; and last of all he appeared to me too; it was as though I was born when no one expected it.

I am the least of the apostles; in fact,
since I persecuted the Church of God, I hardly deserve the name apostle; but by God's grace that is what I am, and the grace that he gave me has not been fruitless. On the contrary, I, or rather the grace of God that is with me, have worked harder than any of the others; but what matters is that I preach what they preach, and this is what you all believed.

The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Jn 15:15

Alleluia, alleluia!

I call you friends, says the Lord, because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 5:1-11

Jesus was standing one day by the Lake of Gennesaret, with the crowd pressing round him listening to the word of God, when he caught sight of two boats close to the bank. The fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats – it was Simon's – and asked him to put out a little from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat.

When he had finished speaking he said to Simon, 'Put out into deep water and pay out your nets for a catch.' 'Master,'

Simon replied, 'we worked hard all night long and caught nothing, but if you say so, I will pay out the nets.' And when they had done this they netted such a huge number of fish that their nets began to tear, so they signalled to their companions in the other boat to come and help them; when these came, they filled the two boats to sinking point.

When Simon Peter saw this he fell at the knees of Jesus saying, 'Leave me, Lord; I am a sinful man.' For he and all his companions were completely overcome by the catch they had made; so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were Simon's partners. But Jesus said to Simon, 'Do not be afraid; from now on it is men you will catch.' Then, bringing their boats back to land, they left everything and followed him.

R. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

The Mystery of Faith No. 1

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection
until you come again.

Communion Antiphon

Cf. Ps 106: 8-9

Let them thank the Lord for his mercy,
his wonders for the children of men,
for he satisfies the thirsty soul,
and the hungry he fills with good things.
